AFTER REACTION

Weakness of Atlantic-Gulf Tintic Standard Holds At Causes Breaks in Many Other Lines

NEW YORK March 17.—A mixture of buying and selling orders creating considerable confusion at the opening of totally stock market. Oils were sirong, particularly General Asphalt and California Petroleum, which soon rose _ guints. Equipment, food, textile and motor speciallies also were inclined to improve, but the list reacted abruptly when Atlantic-Guif displayed fresh unsettlement. That stock opened at a large fractional advance, but extensive offerings soon caused a reaction of alimost 4 norits to the new low of 20%. United Fruit and investment and secondary ralis also cased, but local utilities continued to strengthen. Weakness of Atlantic-Guif, which extended its decline to 20%, occasioned an outburst of selling in all directions. Losses of 1 to 5 points were sustained during the reaction by other shippings, as well as steels, equipments, oils motors to unaccos and obscure specialities. District Attorney Is Arrested for Courtroom Fight

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 17.

—Thomas Ize Woolwine, district attorney of Los Angeles county, was arrested in the courtroom of Superior Judge Willis Wednesday on a warrant charging that he assaulted Paul Schenck, an attorney, earlier in the day during trial of a case in the same room.

Woolwine pleaded not guilty in the city police court and trial was set for next Saturday. He was cited to appear before Judge Willis Friday morning in contempt proceedings as a result of the same affair.

Later Woolwine was arrested again on a warrant sworn to by Schenck, in which he was charged with disturbing the peace. He was released on his own recognizance.

Schenck was defending Everett A. Hutchings, alleged bunco man charged with recollings.

A Hutchings, alleged bunco man, charged with swindling J. B. Norris of Decatur, Ill., out of $51,000, when the clash occurred.

Norris, on the stand in the morning session, was asked by Schneck:

Schneck:
"Didn't Woolwine induce you to come back here to testify by telling you that you would get your money back?"

Woodwine interrupted by de-manding that court be adjourned while he and Schneck went outwant him to account to me for this infamous lie," the district Judge Willis refused to grant the adjournment. Woolwine stepped up to Schenck, who was seated, and struck him on the nose.

Schenck sprang up and dashed at the district atorney, but the men were pulled apart.
